

HEALTH AND SAFETY POLICY STATEMENT

The Health and Safety at Work Act 1974, and its complimenting regulations, imposes statutory duties on employers and employees.

To enable these statutory duties to be carried out, it is the policy of

CRUSADER LTD

(the Company'), so far as is reasonably practicable, to ensure that responsibilities for health and safety are properly assigned, accepted and fulfilled at all levels of the organisation, and that all practicable steps are taken to safeguard the health, safety and welfare of all employees and visitors to the premises and of any other person who may be affected by the activities of the business

1. It is the intention of the Company, so far as is reasonably practicable, to ensure that:-
 - a) the provision and maintenance of equipment and systems of work are safe and without risks to health including the use, handling, storage and the transportation of articles and substances ;
 - b) employees are provided with such information, instruction, training and supervision as is necessary to secure their health and safety;
 - c) employees will be provided with such suitable and adequate personal protection equipment as deemed appropriate consequent upon risk assessments and following provision of other means of reducing risk
 - d) the working environment of all employees is safe and without risks to health, and that adequate provisions are made with regard to facilities and arrangements for their welfare at work including safe means of access to and exit from the premises

1. It shall be the duty of all employees at work:-

- To take reasonable steps for the health and safety of themselves and of other persons who may be affected by their acts or omissions, required under, and incorporated in, their 'terms of employment'.

This policy will be reviewed annually.

Signed:

Position: MD

Dated: 17th March 2017